

News Release

Contact: Ken Phillips
Marketing & Promotions Network
805-915-7644
ken@marketingpromotionsnetwork.com

For Immediate Release June 29, 2010

ROYAL KONA RESORT OPENS TWO NEW PACKAGES

(Kailua-Kona, Hawaii) The Royal Kona Resort on Hawaii's Big Island has opened two new packages, each featuring ocean view accommodations and added values and amenities.

The Royal Experience Package is $195 per night, plus tax, based on double occupancy and includes an ocean view room, welcome bottle of champagne, daily full American breakfast for two at the resort's Don the Beachcomber restaurant, "Lava Legends & Legacies" luau show for two at the property on one evening, and two-hour Sunset Cocktail and Dinner Cruise for two one night. The package is a five-night minimum and the offer is valid for travel now through December 21, 2010 and January 3 to 15, 2011.

The Royal Renewal Package is $225 per night, plus tax, double, and features ocean view accommodations, welcome bottle of champagne, daily full American breakfast for two at Don the Beachcomber, "Lava Legends & Legacies" luau show one evening, and one, 45-minute spa treatment for two (one per person) with a choice of Lomi Lomi massage or facial. The package is a four-night minimum and is available now through December 21, 2010.

Both packages are subject to availability and blackout dates, including October 4 to 9, 2010 for the Big Island's Ironman Triathlon.

For more information and hotel stay reservations, call toll-free 800-22-ALOHA (22-5642) or visit online at www.royalkona.com.